

Discussion Questions Course 105–3

Large Group

1. The commandments can be divided into two main parts. Can anyone name the two parts?
2. Who can remember what happened when Chris chose to ignore the park rules?
3. Do you think we can pick and choose which commandments are best for us follow?
4. Have you ever tried to follow rules or guidelines and found it was too hard, so you gave up?

Small Group

Game

1. Is anyone here perfect—never telling the tiniest lie, never being jealous, and always obeying your parents?
2. Has there ever been anyone in the whole world who never sinned at all?
3. Jesus lived a perfect life, and He has the power to set us free from being slaves to sin! How?

Teaching

1. Who can name a few of the comparisons between Moses and Jesus?
2. Would anybody like to share the results of your challenge—was there a weakness you shared with God that He helped you overcome?
3. How many of you have learned all Ten Commandments?
4. What is the theme of the first four commandments?
5. Who can say them without looking?

SuperVerse

1. What do you think it means to “hold firmly to Him”?
2. Can you name all of the action verbs in this verse?

Prayer

1. Can we keep our sins secret from God?
2. How did Jesus take the punishment for our sins?

Additional Activities

Tossing Game

1. Why is it important to know the Ten Commandments?

Bible Study

1. What does the word consequence mean?
2. For instance, what might be the consequence if you don't study for a test?
3. Is that a positive or negative consequence?
4. What might be the consequence of helping your parents without being asked?
5. Is that a positive or negative consequence?
6. What is the result or consequence of serving sin in Romans 6:22–23?
7. What is the result or consequence of serving God and living a holy life in Romans 6:22–23?
8. What do you think is meant by “wages of sin is death” in Romans 6:22–23?