

Discussion Questions Course 106–2

Large Group

1. Does anyone remember what David's name means?
2. In our video last time, Chris faced a big problem. Do you remember what it was?
3. How did Chris handle his problem?
4. Did David run away when he saw Goliath? What did he do?

Small Group

Game

1. We may not have to worry about a giant named Goliath, but what are some giant fears that we may face today?
2. How can we defeat all of the giant fears and problems we face today?

Teaching

1. How many brothers did David have?
2. How did Samuel know which son was to be the new king?
3. How do you think the brothers felt when they learned that their little brother, David, was to be the new king?
4. How do you think the brothers felt when they saw David at the battle site of the Israelites and the Philistines?
5. How do you think the brothers felt when they saw David defeat Goliath?
6. How do you think David felt standing in front of Goliath?
7. Why didn't any of David's brothers stand up to Goliath?
8. Do you think it would have been wise for David to trust his brothers over trusting God? Why?

SuperVerse

1. Do you remember what Chris was afraid of in our last lesson?
2. How did he get the courage to play his guitar?

Prayer

1. Do you remember what we call the songs that David wrote?
2. Have you ever felt guilty for doing something wrong?
3. We have all done things wrong. What does guilt feel like?
4. After prayer—how does it feel to be forgiven?

Additional Activities

Object Lesson

1. How could David face Goliath?

Rock Craft

1. 1 Timothy 4:12. What is this verse saying to you?
2. David was an example to a number of others; name some of them.

Bible Study

1. What comes to mind when you think of a rock?
2. What do you think David meant when he said God is his rock?
3. David was a shepherd boy. How do you think God trained his hands for battle?
4. How does God train us for difficult situations that we will face?
5. An ally is a friend or a helper in battle. How does it make you feel to have God as your friend?
6. Have you ever sensed that God was on your side?
7. What do you think it means for God to be a fortress and a tower of safety?
8. To take refuge means to find safety. Has God ever rescued you from something?
9. The last line says, He makes the nations submit to me. Who is in charge?
10. When we face giant difficulties, how can it encourage us to know God is working behind the scenes in our battle as our ally?