

Discussion Questions Course 110–3

Large Group

1. Who can tell me what the meal was called that Jesus shared with His disciples?
2. What did Jesus do as a humble act of service for His disciples at that meal?
3. What did He tell His disciples to do, also?
4. Read Ephesians 5:2 to the children. Live a life filled with what? Following whose example? He loved us and offered Himself as a what? A pleasing aroma to whom?

Small Group

Game

1. Did you prefer stacking the cups or rolling the ball?

Teaching

1. Christians today observe this special meal. What do we call it?

Discipleship Challenge

1. Would anyone like to share how you have been able to serve?

Prayer

1. Who knows what an aroma is?
2. Do you think that all aromas are pleasing to smell?
3. I brought in something sweet that I enjoy smelling. Do you like it?
4. I brought in something else for you to smell. (Vinegar cloth.) Do you like it?

Additional Activities

Spoon Object Lesson

1. What are some things that might keep us from serving others?
2. How could we serve someone who could not use their arms?

Paint Craft

1. Jesus told His disciples that He set an example for them to follow. Do you think Jesus was just talking about washing feet?
2. What did Jesus say would happen if the disciples followed His example?

Shoes Object Lesson

1. What do you want to be when you grow up?
2. Who can tell us our SuperTruth for today? (“I will follow Jesus by serving like He did.”)
3. Who knows what a sermon is?
4. Many people don’t ever go to church—so how can they ever hear a sermon about Jesus?
5. Did you ever think that you are a living sermon? If we are rude, proud, angry, or mean, what kind of sermon will we be “preaching” with our actions?
6. What kind of message does Jesus want us to preach with our actions?
7. Jesus wants us to love others. What would you say love is?
