

Discussion Questions    Course 109–3

Large Group

1. Who can name one of Jesus' miracles that we have learned about?
2. What is the difference between an illusion like the street magician performed and a true miracle?
3. Have you ever been around someone who seems to change moods all the time and you never know if he or she will be angry or happy?

Small Group

Game

1. Do you have any friends or relatives who moved away for a long time and then came back to visit? Did you have a hard time recognizing them or did they grow taller or act differently?

Teaching

1. Are these the only things Jesus will heal?

Discipleship Challenge

1. Has anyone already done this challenge? Did you pray for someone who needs to come to Jesus for salvation or healing, and what happened?

Prayer

1. Why isn't everybody healed?

Additional Activities

Bag Game

1. Who remembers our SuperTruth?

Parable Skit

1. Does anyone remember what parable we learned about in the "Miracles of Jesus" Superbook adventure?

Bible Study

1. Have you ever bought a video game, computer, or phone, only to find that a few weeks later, a newer and better one is released?

Numbers 23:19

1. Have you ever been lied to? How does that feel? Were you counting on something or someone and then were disappointed by them?
2. How does it make you feel to know that God, the One who holds eternity in His hands, is not a man and cannot lie, and He will never change His mind?
3. What does that mean regarding the promises in God's Word and something you are holding on to?
4. What do the last two sentences mean to you—do they give you hope, especially when you have been let down before by someone?

James 1:17

1. According to this verse, does God change His mind and give us something that is harmful?
2. How does this help you trust God with your prayers and desires?
3. What do you think it means to cast a shifting shadow?

Isaiah 40:8

1. What does this verse say about everything on Earth? Can we count on things to last forever?
2. Have you ever lost something—like a pet or relative—that you thought would last forever?
3. What does it mean to you to know that God's Word is still as valid and true and powerful now as it was when it was spoken and written down?
4. How does it make you feel to know that as long as you are on Earth, God's Word will not change, become outdated or weak, or fade away?

Psalms 102:25–27

1. Compare God to His creation; what is the difference?
2. What does that say about placing too much value or importance on possessions and treasures on Earth?
3. How does God compare to sports heroes, entertainers, and political leaders? Will they last forever, or will they grow old and fade?
4. How long will God be around? Can we say that about anyone or anything besides God?
