"No More Lies"

VERSE 1

Don't lie, it takes us farther from the truth
Worth a try, you care for me, I care for you
Be loyal to your friends,
Tell them just what you mean if you mean what you say
Then your hands will be clean, oh yeah
Be real, virtue has no good substitute
If you know what really happened, tell it that way
If the food you claim to have baked had never been made

CHORUS

Honesty still remains the only right way
That we can communicate
If it's not so, keep it out of your mouth. No more lies, hey

You really messed up, and now you're scared to tell the truth
You're looking at us, and now you think that we'll judge you
Leave all your sins well behind you, they'll never find you
Now you're in God's kingdom
Honesty had a few bumps but you made it
Now we're elated, happy to speak only honesty
Telling the truth is the right way
Narrow's the highway now that we speak only

CHORUS

Honesty still remains the only right way
That we can communicate
If it's not so, keep it out of your mouth. No more lies, hey
